

I strongly oppose this attempt by the CBA to negate the positive impact the Indiana law has made on the quality of my home life. I object to the undertones of pressure these marketing tactics employ and to the unsolicited infringement on my time. The choice and timing of soliciting a bank for services is mine. We have already received a taped phone solicitation from this group (I assume as it was a bank solicitation) and would prefer not to be troubled again!